

"L" LOOP FOR BRIDGES GETS NEW SETBACK

Connecting Road Proposition Laid Over Until September.

FOR R. T. COMMISSION.

President Ahearn Wants Rapid Transit Board to Pass on Plan.

Acting Mayor McGowan was voted down at the meeting of the Board of Estimate to-day on the proposition of building a connecting loop between the Brooklyn and Williamsburg bridges, on the motion of Borough President of Manhattan, John F. Ahearn.

The division came on the resolution to the effect that the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners be requested to lay out an elevated route in Delancey street from the terminus of the Williamsburg Bridge to the Elevated railroad on the Bowery, and to empower the Interborough Company to double-track its Elevated structure from Delancey street to the Brooklyn Bridge.

When the resolution had been read, Borough President Ahearn offered a substitute resolution to the effect that the matter be referred to the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners on the advisability of a elevated structure or a subway or some other form of connection.

Acting Mayor McGowan said that the substitute was out of order except by unanimous consent.

"Well, I ask for unanimous consent," said Mr. Ahearn.

Mr. McGowan said the Board has no right to complicate matters by presenting a substitute resolution.

"I have just as much right in this Board as you have," said Mr. Ahearn, and I insist that the substitute be considered."

"I decline to consider it," said Mr. McGowan.

"Then I move that the matter be laid over until September," said Mr. Ahearn.

"As I understand the substitute," said Comptroller Metz, "this is merely to let the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners have a say in the matter."

"We have a right to amend," said Borough President of Brooklyn, Bird S. Coler, "or else we are not a Board at all."

"I move my motion to lay over," said Mr. Ahearn.

On the vote all the Borough Presidents voted with Mr. Ahearn, while Mr. McGowan had only the Comptroller to support him.

On the recommendation of the Comptroller the Health Commissioner was allowed $5,575.90 to be expended during the months of July and August for the employment of additional inspectors and nurses.

$75,000 for Record Furniture.

The request of Borough President Ahearn for an appropriation of $75,000 for equipping the offices in the Hall of Records was adopted.

The Board authorized the issue of corporate stock to the amount of $75,000 for the purchase of the property of the Crystal Water Company, in the Borough of Brooklyn.

A report recommending nine sites for Caranaga libraries in Brooklyn and the Bronx was presented. A line on the calendar said the Comptroller "withheld his approval." Before voting Mr. McGowan asked the meaning of the statement.

"I am opposed to the general extension at the city's cost," the Comptroller said. "As far as I am informed the sites and the prices are all right, but I declined to approve the reports. I am willing to vote for them here because I understand I have to do so."

Five of the sites are to be bought by private agreement for a total of $192,000. Police Commissioner Brinahan got $7,000 to pay the three additional inspectors he was authorized by the Board of Aldermen to appoint.

CREW OF SIX PERISH IN SCHOONER WRECK.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NORFOLK, Va., July 6.—The schooner Maggie A. Phillips, of Baltimore, which passed out Virginia Capes June 8, for the Bahamas Islands to load pineapples, has been lost at sea and her crew of six perished.

She was commanded by Capt. Samuel Jones, of St. Mary's, Md.; William J. Sommers, Jr., of Lancaster, Va., was her mate.

AGED PAINTER FALLS FROM A SCAFFOLD.

Old James Lapet, a painter for more than forty years, fell down a scaffold while painting a window such at the residence of Daniel Dreyer, No. 36 West Forty-third street to-day. He was taken to Flower Hospital with broken ribs, a broken leg and shattered wrist.

Lapet's son has the contract for the painting and this morning when his father complained of not feeling well told him to knock off and go home.

"I guess I'm getting pretty old for this scaffold work, John," said the old man, "but I'll stick it out till now."

A few moments later he fell. Lapet lived at No. 133 Amsterdam avenue.

TIED UP NEW YORK CENTRAL.

Incoming trains on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad were delayed between a half and three quarters of an hour this morning by the derailment of a work train in the yards above the Grand Central station.

The train was stalled along the road as far as Harlem. Passengers were given a chance to leave the train at the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, every train stopping there, both local and express. The derailment occurred at 10 A. M. and at noon the trains were running on schedule time.

GIRL WHO VANISHED AFTER CHIDING FOR FROLIC AT CONEY.

JENNIE RITZ.

CONEY LURES GIRL TO LEAVE HOME.

Scolded for Staying Late, Pretty Cigarette Worker Disappears.

Jennie Ritz, a cigarette girl, eighteen years old, ran away from her home in Harlem, wearing her prettiest white suit. She was angered because her mother scolded her for staying late at Coney Island so late Sunday night that she didn't get home until 11 o'clock. Her mother is a dressmaker and seamstress, Nicholas Paraghi, of No. 315 East One Hundred and Sixth street, is badly upset, for he regarded Jennie as his own daughter.

After Jennie left St. Joseph's Academy, four years ago, she secured a place at the Seventy-ninth street factory of the American Tobacco Company. A few months ago she was transferred to the Twenty-second street factory, where she met a girl who told her of the good times pretty girls could have at Coney Island.

Typical New York girl, although her father, Anthony Ritz, and her step-father, Nicholas Paraghi, were Italian, Jennie she went to Coney with the other cigarette girls and they spent the day there. It was the first holiday Jennie had had in a long time and she stayed out until 11 at night. She cried bitterly when her mother scolded her.

Jennie started Monday morning at her usual time to go to work, wearing a white waist, her black working skirt and white shoes. She asked her step-father to take her black shoes to the cobblers. This was later discovered to be an excuse for wearing the white ones.

After the girl had left her mother found that Jennie had worn her best white skirt under the black one, and suspected the girl was going out again on pleasure bent. Since then nothing has been seen or heard of Jennie.

She is a very pretty girl, with dark hair and eyes and olive complexion. She is 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighs 130 pounds and is dressed all in white.

NEW BATTLE NEAR IN SAN DOMINGO

Government Forces Ordered to Attack Rebels Who Hold Monte Christi.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Advices have been received at the Navy Department from Commander Southernland, in charge of the American naval forces in Dominican waters, relative to the status of the revolutionary movement in the northern part of Santo Domingo. He says:

"A representative of the government is now in Monte Christi conferring with leaders of the rebellious forces there in the effort to effect a peaceful settlement of the difficulty, but so far without success."

"The rebel leaders insist on retaining absolute control of the city and province of Monte Christi; the Government absolutely rejects these terms, and orders have come from President Caceres to attack the rebels immediately."

"The Government force is made up of about 30 men enrolled in Monte Christi and as many more brought from the interior, making a total of about 60 soldiers who are ready to attack the force of 500 men. The Government also has a gunboat at Monte Christi to assist the soldiers in the attack."

MRS. OSBORNE GOES TO ANOTHER SANITARIUM.

Husband of Wealthy Brooklyn Woman Wins His Fight for a Change.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 6.—An order of Supreme Court Justice Keogh allowing Mrs. Penelope Duell Osborne to be transferred from Dr. E. N. Carpenter's sanitarium at Walden-on-the-Hudson to some other institution, was filed in the Supreme Court here to-day.

The application for the transfer was made by Lawyers Goodhue and Blosson, representing Victor M. Osborne, husband of the woman, who for several months has been fighting to have his wife sent to some other institution.

Mrs. Osborne, who owns property worth about $200,000 in Brooklyn, was recently declared sane and competent by a Sheriff's jury at White Plains, but Justice Keogh set aside the verdict and ordered Mrs. Osborne sent back to the Carpenter sanitarium.

DUMMY "MAYOR" SCARES A MOTORMAN.

Amid the jeers of a crowd of three hundred persons, made up mostly of small boys, Lineman George Bergman, of the New York Telephone Company, this morning nipped the wire that held the effigy of Mayor McEllan suspended from the front of No. 46 East Eighteenth street and lowered the dummy to the ground.

Once it was near enough to the ground hundreds of outstretched hands did the rest, and when last seen the "Mayor" was lying across the car tracks at Twenty-third street and Second avenue and, according to a motorman who brought his car to a sudden standstill, thinking he was about to run down a human being.

A transparency, inside of which was a red lamp, was hanging to the effigy, bearing the inscription:

"George B. McEllan, Our Mayor—NIL."
